

Traffic and weather should be allowed just as the weather channel has been allowed to alert people of adverse conditions. Why should better goods and services not be allowed to people willing to pay for them. Is this not the land of the free? Or are we going to be communist radio?